“The Beat Inside” is an album featuring six Victorian based Blues performers, produced and compiled by Barry Hills, from Dutch Tilders legendary band, ‘Blues Club” and producer of ‘Real Australian Blues Vol 1-4.

“The Beat Inside” aims to show some new directions in Blues music and some artists that are pushing the envelope, looking with a fresh approach which is what the producer wanted to capture. The album is highlighted by some debut recordings of Billy Kavanagh & Sue Nightingale who have been playing in the scene for many years. 999 Soulful Fragments are new on the scene, the three tracks here are taken from their self titled CD. Marco’s tracks are also from his new CD, ‘Stompin Ground’ which is definitely worth more than just a listen. Lloyd Spiegel is the youngest performer included at only 21 years he has already toured the USA. Barry Hills current band, Lazy James also gets a chance to show what their all about.
