Blind Dog & The Reverend "Love n' Pain"

Here is a bluesy, swampy, funkadelic all round good time blues event wherever it puts up it's tent...

The line up started way back when as the legendary Howlin' Moondoggies, The 5 Hanks and The Convertibles. Blind Dog Donnie was the backbone of long lasting Li'l Fi & The Delta Rhythm Kings who took out the 1994 award for "Best Live Australian Blues Band" at the Byron Bay Blues Festival.

Together and separately, these guys have played some fantastic live shows, including supports for such greats as BB King, Johnny Copeland and The Pogues.

The energy of Blind Dog and The Reverend is well known on the blues circuit and has seen them

Blind Dog Donnie has long been hailed as Brisbane's "king of the blues guitar" and his low-down boogie-woogie sound is captured perfectly on this album.

The Reverend's hip-grinding, brain crunching bass is excellent and the perfect compliment to Blind Dog.

"Love and Pain" is an album that oozes the soul and funk side of blues and this wide open sound is sure to conjure up the feeling that the joint is jumpin' wherever you are!
