The Redliners

Born of a mutual love of blues, R&B and Rock n' Roll, The Redliners formed in Melbourne in 1997 and have been steadily gaining a following of devotees since. Already renowned for their slick live shows, The Redliners debut album manages to capture the energy and charisma of the band.

The members of The Redliners are no strangers to the blues scene, having collectively played in some of Melbourne's finest blues bands including 'Howlin' Time', 'Blue Devil', 'Geronimos Cadillac', 'The Vanguard's' and 'Louis King and The Liars Club' before coming together to create their own distinctive sound.

The Redliners album features eight fantastic original tracks as well as some classics such as Eddie Taylor's 'I'm Gonna Love You'.

This stunning debut album from The Redliners will have all fans of 50's Rock n'Roll, Rockabilly and blues enraptured and dancing from the moment this disc enters the player!

"The Redliners have put together an album that pulsates with confidence and maturity. Wonderfully recorded live in the studio, the slap bass hits you in the gut, the roaring twin guitar raunch of Ben Peters and Dave Birtwell sets the pulse racing and singer Rod Paine wails achingly about his girls new dress as if it were the most important thing in the world. And that is just the first track"
